50X1-HUM

1. All reports announcing that conversations are currently being held by the Tito regime with opposition leaders Ivan Subasic, Milan Grol and others are purely imaginary. The government itself is probably launching this propaganda to soften the disposition of the Western Powers and obtain economic aid.
2. Tito is a confirmed Communist. His determination to carry out complete socialization and to step up the pressure against the Catholic church are concrete manifestations of his intention to strictly follow his chosen path.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
